Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

I) Claim 2 directs to the change of a storage order for the receive data based symbol rate information obtained when demodulating the receive data.

II) Claim 3 directs to control means that changes a storage order for the receive data based on multipass information obtained when demodulating the receive data.

III) Claim 4 directs to the control means changes a storage order for the receive data in response to an instruction sent from a power control system of the receiving device.

IV) Claim 5 directs to rake synthesizing a plurality of receiving signals demodulated on a pass correspondence.

V) Claim 6 directs to means for independently receiving a pilot symbol to carry out a phase estimation for a synchronous detection and receiving a data symbol VI) Claim 7 directs to a reverse diffusion processing and a synchronous detection processing for receiving signals of a plurality of channels are carried out by using identical circuit.

VII) Claim 8 directs to a reverse diffusion processing and a synchronous detection processing for receiving signals of a plurality of passes are carried out by using an identical circuit.

XIII) Claim 9 directs to a synchronous detection processing and a rake synthesis processing for a plurality of passes and a plurality of channels are carried out at the same time by using an identical circuit.

IX) Claim 10 directs to the storage means that has storage memories corresponding to an over-sampling degree or a plurality of storage memories.

X) Claim 11 directs to the receive data read continuously from the storage means that are consecutively diffused reversely.

XI) Claim 12 directs to the receive data read from the storage means in an optional order are diffused reversely.

XII) Claim 13 directs to the control means that changes contents of a calculation in accordance with a program.

XIII) Claims 14-16 direct to the storage means that divides the data obtained before and after the reverse diffusion and stores them therein, respectively.

XIV) Claim 17 directs to an integrated circuit.

XV) Claim 18 directs to a code division multiplex communication.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1 is generic.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

- (a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;
- (b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;
- (c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);
- (d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;
- (e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
